

THE POTOMAC ARMS COLLECTORS' ASSOCIATION (P.A.C.A.)

Established 1955

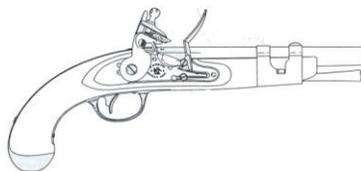

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

An organization dedicated to serving the needs and interests of Washington area collectors of antique and modern arms

www.paca-club.org

PACA is an educational and social organization devoted to:

- Promoting the collection, use and preservation of all types of arms and their related accessories
- Encouraging an appreciation of and interest in American history through the study of arms and equipment

PACA activities include:

- Regular monthly meetings with presentations on arms collecting and other topics of interest by expert guest speakers and members. Also featured are “show and tell” sessions and displays of arms and equipment by members
- An annual PACA sponsored gun show
- A Crab Feast in the fall and a Holiday Party in December for members and family
- A Members Only Raffle
- Occasional field trips

These activities are a great way to expand one's knowledge and meet with other arms collectors in a friendly and informal environment.

Members also receive a monthly newsletter with Association news, a listing of area gun shows and articles on arms collecting.

PACA member receiving an award for his Japanese Arms display at a recent PACA show

PACA meets once a month at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Rosensteel Avenue in Silver Spring, Maryland. Invited guests are welcome to attend.

Membership in PACA will open new areas of collecting and history to you. We welcome experienced arms collectors and historians as well as beginning collectors who are eager to learn. If you are interested in arms collecting and American or military history, you will benefit from PACA membership.

We believe that PACA has much to offer the arms collector and invite you to attend a meeting to get to know us better. Give us a call for more information:

Jim Leahigh, President

(301) 949-5012

Bill Rambo, Newsletter Editor
(301) 977- 7486